Strategic Policy Context - Children’s Services Planning Approach

  - requires every Health and Social Services Board to prepare and publish plans for the provision of children’s services within its area and to keep those plans under review. In preparing or updating its plans, a Health and Social Services Board is required to consult Health and Social Services trusts, education and library boards, district councils, certain voluntary organisations, the Northern Ireland Housing Executive, the Probation Board for Northern Ireland, the police and other relevant bodies. The Department of Health and Social Services may require a Health and Social Services Board’s plan to be submitted to it at any time.

• Promote integrated provision of service and effective use of available resources
• Facilitate joint commissioning by agencies when it is seen as appropriate to meet the needs of children
• Ensure consistency of approach to planning

“making a gradual shift to preventative and early intervention approaches without compromising those children and young people who currently need our services most”
Early intervention

Integrated delivery

“the need for more joined up planning and commissioning of services. The most persistent problems associated with deprivation and social exclusion cannot be addressed by individual services or even sectors working in isolation”

“Major societal change can not be achieved through a piecemeal approach which relies on many pilot projects but on a sustained adaptation of mainstream services towards those interventions that provide the best results in the medium to long
Policy Themes

• Consistency in planning
• Work better together—within and across sectors
• Rebalance the system to early intervention
• Change mainstream services

And

• Apply what we know more effectively—implementation
• Transfer learning between and across organisations

Access to a Network of Support-Family Support Hub

A Family Support Hub is a multi-agency network of statutory, voluntary and community organizations that either provide early intervention services or work with families who need early intervention services. The network accepts referrals of families who need early intervention family support and uses their knowledge of local service providers to signpost families with specific needs to appropriate services.
Purpose of Family Support Hubs

• To improve access to early intervention family support services by matching the needs of referred families to family support providers
• To improve coordination of early intervention family support services by creating a collaborative network of providers
• To improve awareness of family support services
• To assess the level of unmet need for early intervention family support services and inform the relevant Outcomes Group
Early Intervention Transformation Programme

• The coming together of six Government Departments and private philanthropy, as part of the Delivering Social Change initiative, to jointly fund a programme of early intervention

• The programme will seek to:

  1. equip all parents with the skills needed to give their child the best start in life
  2. support families when problems first emerge, out-with the statutory system
  3. positively addressing the impact of adversity on children by intervening both earlier & more effectively to reduce the risk of poor outcomes later in life
Focus of Early Intervention Transformation Programme

1. Working together / pulling resources to focus on prevention and earlier intervention

2. Achieving transformational change by:
   • doing things differently to achieve different outcomes – which may require brave decisions to stop doing some things to invest in other interventions which are more effective.
   • Using evidence more effectively

3. Using data and outcome indicators to both drive improvement & demonstrate change
EITP Work Stream 1

- A Universal Offer
- Focus on resilience building
- Three delivery components:
  - Getting Ready for Baby
  - Getting Ready for Toddler
  - Getting Ready to Learn
EITP Work Stream 2

• Inevitably, despite supporting all parents to give their child the best start in life, some families will need extra support to prevent early problems getting worse.
• Core components
  • Family Support Hubs
  • PHA Parenting Programmes
  • Early Intervention Service
EITP Work Stream 3

• positively addressing the impact of adversity on children by intervening both earlier & more effectively to reduce the risk of poor outcomes later in life

• There will always be a small number of families who regardless of the support and help offered, are unable or unwilling to provide the care, safety and protection that children need. This strand of work will support new approaches within mainstream services to intervene earlier and more effectively to enable children in these families to be cared for safely and appropriately and helped to grow into confident, well-adjusted adults who can fulfil their potential within society
How will we know if we have been successful?

Challenges

• Number of early intervention initiatives – challenge of joining it all together both strategically and operationally.
• Clear implementation challenge. How do we merge the new programmes within existing structures
• Statutory services cannot sustain every programme/initiative currently being developed
• Capturing and sharing learning
• Making effective links across early intervention and to services at higher levels of need
• Sustainability and transformational change
• Reaching out beyond social services to engage other statutory agencies in this work
